

June 18, 2001

Kris Corda
Director, Big Red Barn
Graduate & Professional Student Center
Ithaca, NY 14853

Dear Kris,

This letter is update the ongoing terms of the agreement between Cornell Dining and the Big Red Barn Graduate and Professional Student Center (GPSC) per discussions in June, 2001. Per the Memorandum of Understanding issued March 1, 1994, the agreement between Cornell Dining and the Bid Red Barn GPSC will remain in effect until all parties agree to terminate it or adopt any proposed changes.

The following are a renewal of existing terms and agreement on new conditions:

- ❖ At the end of each fiscal year, both parties will meet to review the undergraduate meal plan
- ❖ Bid Red Barn GPSC is able to contract with any Cornell Dining entity as a caterer.
- ❖ If necessary, the Big Red Barn GPSC will be able to utilize an outside cater 2-3 times per year
- ❖ Cornell Dining will maintain the existing hours of operation
- ❖ Cornell Dining will continue to provide food for the graduate program between 2:00-6:00PM
- ❖ Big Red Barn GPSC will continue a close relationship with Cornell Dining to provide food support for Graduate programs

Please indicate your approval of this update by signing below and returning a copy to this office.

Sincerely,

Emily Franco
Campus Life Purchasing Manager

Signature – Big Red Barn GPSC Representative

Date

Business Services

A Function of CAMPUS LIFE, CORNELL UNIVERSITY