Subject of Resolution	Voting Rights for Members of the Undergraduate Community "The Community Clause"
Status/Result	New Business

Whereas, the Preamble of the Student Assembly Charter states that the Student Assembly will "effect more extensive involvement in campus governance."

Whereas, the Student Assembly seeks to further engage the undergraduate student community all issues relating to undergraduate student life at Cornell University.

Whereas, the Student Assembly, with the passage of Resolution 12, calling for the direction election of the Student Assembly President and Executive Vice President, has embraced fundamental ideas relating to direct democracy.

Be it therefore resolved:

The following changes are made to the Student Assembly charter:

3.1 Composition

The SA will consist of 23 popularly elected voting members and any member of the undergraduate community who fulfills the voting eligibility requirements pursuant to *Bylaw 3.1.d, who are registered undergraduate students at Cornell University. Eleven voting members of the SA will be elected by and from the student populations of the colleges and schools, one from each: the College of Architecture, Art and Planning; the School of Hotel Administration; the College of Human Ecology; and the School of Industrial and Labor Relations.

Add:

Bylaw 3.1.d (The Community Clause)

i. One vote will be allocated to each non-elected undergraduate member of the Cornell community present at three consecutive SA meetings.

- ii. Upon absence from two consecutive SA meetings by a non-elected undergraduate student, voting rights of the aforementioned undergraduate will be revoked until completion of the voting eligibility requirements outlined in Bylaw 3.1.d.i
- iii. Non-elected voting members, who were active in the previous academic year, shall be considered active at the start of the next academic year unless they are not a registered undergraduate student.
- iv. The community clause may only be exercised on final votes of sense-of-body resolutions pursuant to Bylaw 1.3.a.4, which excludes (1) funding and budgetary decisions, (2) amendments to the SA Charter and Standing Rules, (3) the ability to make motions, (4) creation/dissolution of committees (5) selection of officers, committee members, and liaisons from the popularly elected SA (i.e. allocation of the Student Activity Fee, SAFC appeals, approval of Parliamentarian, Liaison to the Provost, etc.).
- v. At the beginning of each Student Assembly meeting, members of the community will present their Cornell IDs to the Parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian will record all undergraduate community members present within 15 minutes of the meeting's call to order. Prior to the final vote of a resolution, qualifying members of the community will be permitted to cast their vote.

Bylaw 4.1.b

A Parliamentarian shall be nominated by the President and affirmed by a majority of the SA voting members. The Parliamentarian need not be an SA member. The office of Parliamentarian holds no special voting privileges. The Parliamentarian also may not hold the President or Executive Vice President positions. The Parliamentarian shall advise the President on questions of parliamentary procedure. The Parliamentarian shall enforce and administer The Community Clause of the Student Assembly charter.

5.3 Vetoing Power

Popularly elected voting SA members reserve the right to veto the passage of sense-of-body resolutions pursuant to Bylaw 1.3.a.4 by a two-thirds majority vote of the popularly elected voting SA members present.

...and...

ARTICLE 2: Charter Amendment

2.2 By SA Voting Member

Any popularly elected members of the SA may present an amendment to the entire SA for consideration. Within two regularly scheduled meetings after such presentation the SA will discuss and vote on the proposed amendment(s). Under no circumstances will this Charter be amended without the consent of two-thirds of the voting members of the SA.

ARTICLE 3: Membership

3.1 Composition

The SA will consist of 23 popularly elected voting members and any undergraduates who fulfill voting eligibility requirements pursuant to *Bylaw 3.1.d who are registered undergraduate students at Cornell University.

3.3 Student Body/Presidential Appointment

All members of the Cornell student body are considered non-voting members of the SA unless they fulfill voting eligibility requirements pursuant to *Bylaw 3.1.d, and are encouraged to attend and participate in meetings. The SA may designate ex-officio members. The President will appoint one member of the administration to serve as consultant to the SA at its meetings.

Bylaw 3.3.a

One member chosen by the InterFraternity Council (IFC), the Panhellenic Association (PanHel), or the Multicultural Greek Living Council (MGLC) shall be included as a non-voting ex-officio member on a rotating basis until he or she fulfills voting eligibility requirements pursuant to *Bylaw 3.1.d, beginning with a representative of IFC, following with PanHel, and finishing with MGLC.

Bylaw 3.3.b

One executive member shall be chosen by the Residence Hall Association (RHA) to serve as a non-voting ex-officio member until he or she fulfills voting eligibility requirements pursuant to *Bylaw 3.1.d.

3.4 Absentees

Any popularly elected voting members who are absent for three consecutive regularly scheduled meetings or for six regularly scheduled meetings cumulatively during their term, will lose their right to vote and their position will be considered vacated. The remaining popularly elected voting members will fill all vacancies by seating the highest ranked non-winning candidate in the last election from the same constituency....

ARTICLE 4: Officers

4.1 President/Others

The SA will, as soon as possible after the spring election, hold an organizational and planning meeting. The SA shall elect any officers it deems important to the normal operations of the SA at some time prior to June 1st. Each nominee for the respective offices shall be subject to two-thirds approval of the SA popularly elected voting members...

Bylaw 4.1.a

Elections for officers and the two SA popularly elected voting members to the UA shall be by separate secret ballots. SA voting members may have one vote for each position to be filled, but may not vote for any one individual twice on any ballot. The President may not be one of the SA representatives to the UA.

Bylaw 4.1.b

A Parliamentarian shall be nominated by the President and affirmed by a majority of the popularly elected SA voting members. The Parliamentarian need not be an SA member. The office of Parliamentarian holds no special voting privileges until he or she fulfills voting eligibility requirements pursuant to *Bylaw 3.1.d.

Bylaw 4.1.d

Two-thirds (2/3) of the seated popularly elected members of the SA may vote to recall any officer of the SA from his or her office. Two-thirds (2/3) of the seated popularly elected SA members may vote to recall any representative of the SA to the UA from his or her office.

Bylaw 4.2.a

Membership:

Bylaw 4.2.a.6

In the event that the VP Internal Operations, or Finance, or Public Relations resigns from office or is unable to perform the duties of the aforementioned offices, an election shall be held to fill the position. All popularly elected Assembly members are eligible to run for the vacated office and existing rules governing the election of Executive Committee Officers shall be utilized.

6.3 Executive Session

With the concurrence of two-thirds of the popularly elected voting members in attendance, the SA or any of its committees may go into executive session only to discuss confidential matters as defined in Article 5. No policy determinations will be made in executive session.

Bylaw 6.3.a

~~The SA shall abide by the "Open Meetings" law and the spirit of its intent.~~ Non-elected undergraduate members of the Cornell community will be excluded from all Executive Sessions.

6.4 Quorum

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the seated popularly elected voting members of the SA.

Bylaw 6.4.a

Proxy votes shall be cast exclusively as follows.

Bylaw 6.4.a.1

Only excused popularly elected voting members shall be permitted to cast proxy votes.

ARTICLE 7: Committees

7.1 Creation

7.1.1 Committees will be established with the adoption of a committee charge and an appropriate bylaw. The charge and bylaw must be moved by a voting popularly elected member of the SA, but they

7.2 Dissolution
