S.A. Resolution # 6
University Assembly Undergraduate Representatives as Ex-Officio Members of the Student Assembly

Sponsored by: Syed Ali Kahn '15, Matthew Battaglia '16, Connor McGrath '15

Whereas, the student-elected University Assembly undergraduate representatives act as a liaison between the student body and the administration.

Whereas, the University Assembly does not make any distinction between the undergraduate representatives directly elected to the University Assembly and the Student Assembly members selected by their peers to sit on the UA, but rather sees them all as the join voice of the undergraduate body.

Whereas, both the Student Assembly and the student-elected University Assembly undergraduate representatives better represent students when they have frequent communication.

Be it therefore resolved, that Article I of the SA Bylaws be amended as follows:

Section 3: The SA will grant the student-elected University Assembly undergraduate representatives debating, but not voting privileges.

Respectfully Submitted,

Syed Ali Khan '15

Minority Representative, Student Assembly

Matthew Battaglia '16

Undergraduate Representative, University Assembly

Connor McGrath '15

Undergraduate Representative, University Assembly
