3
4 Whereas, Article 3.2.1 of the University Assembly Charter states “The Assembly must approve
5 each appointment or reappointment by the President of the University to the following
6 offices: the Judicial Administrator, the University Ombudsman, and the Judicial Codes
7 Counselor. In the event of a vacancy in any of these positions, the President or a
8 designee will appoint a search committee to which the Assembly may appoint a 9 representative...” (Emphasis added); and 10

11 Whereas, the Article II, Section A, Subsection 3 of Campus Code of Conduct reads “upon the 12 University Assembly chair’s receipt of notice of the Judicial Administrator’s resignation 13 or removal, the chair shall convene a six-member search committee, including two 14 members appointed by the President and four members appointed by the University 15 Assembly, to propose two or more nominees to the President.”; and

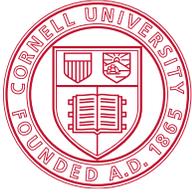

16
17 Whereas, the Campus Code of Conduct supersedes the University Assembly Charter in defining 18 the search process for Judicial Administrator; and

19
20 Whereas, in the current search Judicial Administrator search the President’s Office and 21 Assembly are adhering to the procedure laid out in the Code of Conduct; and

22
23 Whereas, an incongruity between the Assembly’s Charter and the Campus Code of Conduct 24 creates confusion and can lead to misinterpretation of the Assembly’s role in a search; be 25 it therefore

26
27 Resolved that Article 3.2.1 of the University Assembly Charter be amended to read:

- 28
29
- 30 • The Assembly must approve each appointment or reappointment by the President of the 31 University to the following offices: the Judicial Administrator, the University 32 Ombudsman, and the Judicial Codes Counselor. In the event of a vacancy in the offices
33 of the University Ombudsman or Judicial Codes Counselor of these positions; the President or a designee will appoint a search committee to which the Assembly may 34 appoint a representative. In the event of a vacancy in the Judicial Administrator's office, 35 the procedure laid out in Article II, Section A, Subsection 3 of Campus Code of Conduct

36 for constituting a search will be followed. Incumbent occupants of each office may serve 37 any number of consecutive terms; however, no single term may exceed two years in 38 duration.
